Mrs. Park Hostess to Embroidery Club

Mrs. P. S. Park had with her on Tuesday afternoon the members of the Embroidery Club for a pleasant session devoted to the doing of dainty hand-work and to social interchange of chat.

The home was beautiful in its floral embellishment, foliage plants forming the background for the clustering of lovely blossoms, quantities of calla lilies, and pink larkspur being effectively arranged. Many beautiful pieces of fancy work were in evidence, and deft needles flew while the owners indulged in pleasant chat. The meeting was thoroughly informal, and for that reason thoroughly delightful.

At the close of the afternoon a delicious course of chicken salad, olives, cheese sticks, sandwiches, cream puffs were served with ice tea.

The out-of-town guests present were Mrs. H. G. Rhodes, Mrs. W. E. Johnson of Beaumont, and Mrs. Holman of California.

Entertained High School Seniors

The seniors of the high school were entertained in most delightful fashion last evening by a member of the class, Miss Lillian Hanneman, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Batte.

Within the home many arrangements of roses and flowers of the season made brightness and fragrance. Mrs. Batte and the young hostess had thoughtfully planned and arranged an ideal program of entertainment, so that the evening might be one of pleasure. A contest at fishing for fortunes provided much fun, and a May flower contest was another diversion that was interesting. A large high school pennant was given as the souvenir of the evening.

A refreshing fruit punch was served from an attractively decorated table all during the evening, and cream and cake were the refreshments served. Pleasant compliments and adieus furnished a happy finale to this well appointed party.

Mrs. Stephens Entertained

Mrs. L. L. Stephens opened her pretty home yesterday for an all-day sociality. The personnel enjoying the pleasant affair were the delegates who attended the Presbyterian which met in Navasota last week. As is usual with this gracious hostess, all arrangements were perfect in detail and the bountiful lunch at noon especially appetizing.

Various forms of entertainment gave pleasure during the day, especially taking kodak pictures of the grouped assembly.

Those present were Misses Allie Conway, Mary McInnis, Esther Cavitt, Irene Board, Malcolm McInnis, Willie McDougald, Edith Cavitt; Mesdames S. B. Holman, W. P. Bryan, Lizzie Willeox, C. M. Bell, S. C. Hoyle, L. S. Whittaker.

Church Social Session

The Methodist Young Ladies Missionary Society met in business and social session Friday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. J. S. Doane, with Mrs. Doane and Mrs. R. W. Howell as hostesses. The program for the afternoon was as follows.

Subject—Japan.

"Evangelistic Work in Japan"—Miss Nell Cole.

"Life and Work of Miss Annie Bell Williams"—Miss Mary Shellburne.

"Life and Work of Miss Annie Bell Mrs. Jess Bullock.

"Need of Woman's Work"—Miss Mabel Zimmerman.

"Preaching and Sunday School"—Mrs. Harry Tuffley.

"Cooking Classes, Street Preaching and Tract Distribution"—Mrs. Dewitt Graham.

"The Place of the Hymn on Japanese Faith"—Miss Clara Mawhinney.

"Twenty Heart-Reaching Questions"—Mrs. Marvin Young.

At the conclusion a very delightful social hour was spent and a delicious course of cream was served with angel cake.

A Birthday Party

Of all the places where perfect joy and happiness seem to abound, it is when a number of happy children are gathered together to play and enjoy the good things which the "grown-ups" have planned for them. With the invitation to a birthday party the happiest degree of happiness is theirs, and on last Saturday afternoon when Miss Dorothy Doane celebrated her sixth birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Doane, there could not have been witnessed a happier, prettier group of young friends, who came to pay her honor on this day.

The little hostess cordially met the guests and in a most courteous manner received the gifts which they presented her.

The happy children romped on the large shaded lawn in many delightful games, and were grouped into many pretty poses while their pictures were snapped with a kodak.

The concluding pleasure was a feast of ice cream, confections and cake, and during this period the large white birthday cake, placed on a table in a bed of maiden hair fern and white geraniums, with six green candles blazing on its surface, was cut and the emblems drawn. Master Jack Bird Eastham got the thimble, Franchelle Roberts, the ring; Esther Bullock, the wish-bone, and McDonald Howell the heart.

Green tarleton bags filled with candies and tied with white ribbons were souvenirs that gave delightful pleasure to the participants.

D. A. R.

The regular monthly meeting of the D. A. R.'s was with Mrs. G. S. Fraps at College, on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was one of the most delightful yet enjoyed by the chapter.

Mrs. Fraps proved herself a most charming hostess and her little daughter, Miss Mary Fraps, though a tiny girl, gave an instrumental number on the program that was so sweetly and correctly played it called forth the admiration and praise of all present.

After the business session the ladies enjoyed the following program: Roll Call—Notable Women of the Revolution.

Music—Miss Mary Fraps.
Paper—Early Silhouettes—Mrs. Jno. Allen.

Reading—Mrs. Rayson.
Music—Dancing Doll—Polidini—Mrs. Friley.

Refreshments of strawberry cream and angel food cake were served.

After being defeated by Shiloh 3 to 2 Sunday, Koppe defeated Wellborn and a picked team from Wellborn and Millican in a double-header. The first game was rather ragged and was won by Koppe, 15 to 2. The next was a five-inning game and was also won by Koppe, 3 to 0. The features of this game was a home run by Wisnoski and the pitching of Machos, who allowed no batter to reach first and striking out 13 of the 15 men who faced him. Collie Graham was the star for Wellborn and the only man who hit the ball in the last game.
